CORPORATE GIFTING & BULK ORDER

Premium apparel for teams, gifting programmes and bulk orders. Designed in New Delhi, built for brands that want to be remembered long after the order ships. From onboarding kits to full team uniforms, every piece carries fabric that lasts, a design language rooted in Indian identity, and a fit built for real bodies.

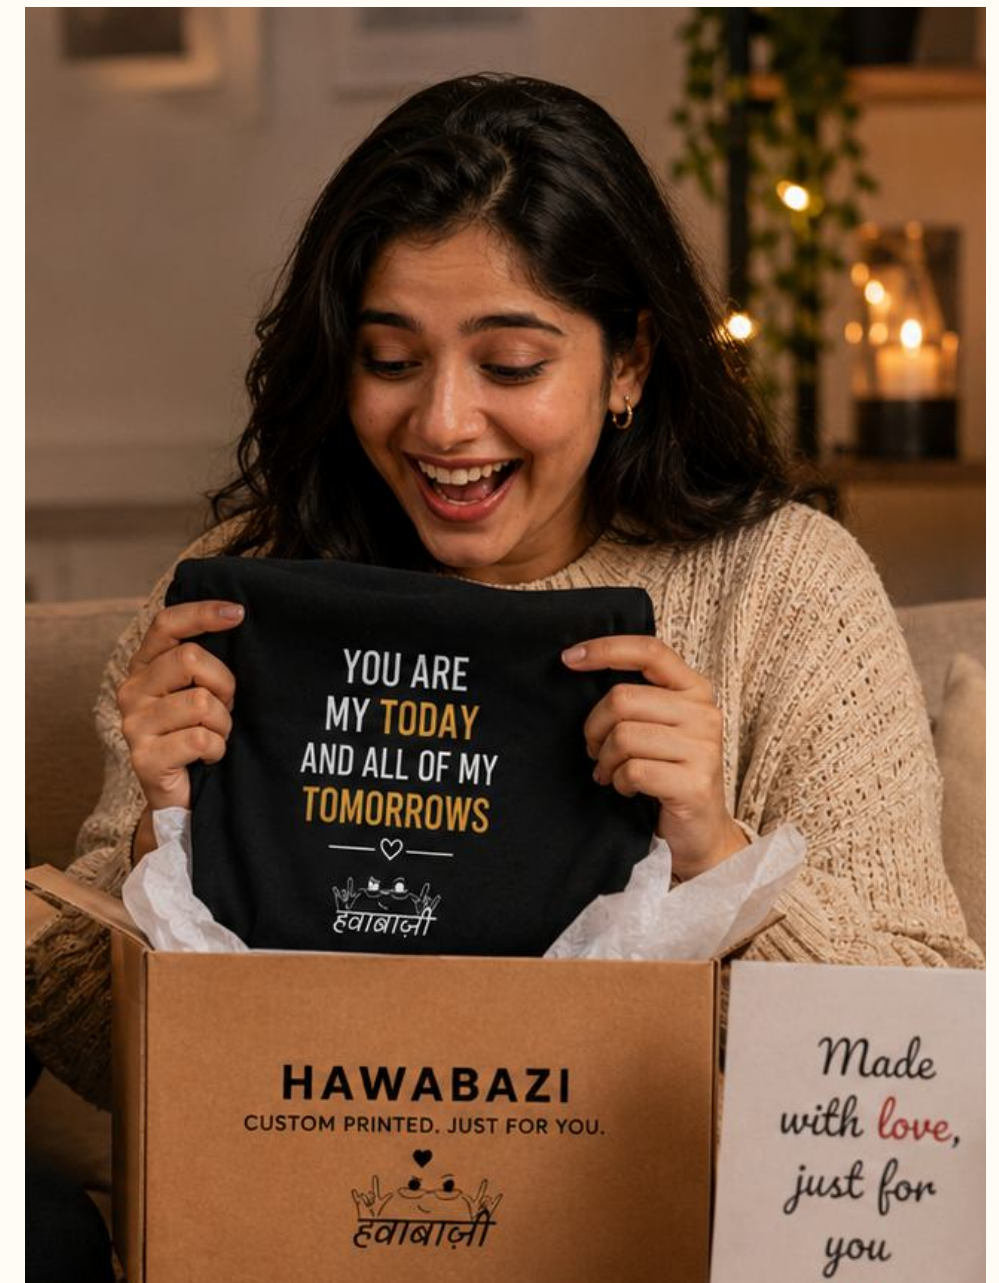

01 — THE PROBLEM

Every company gives gifts. Few are remembered for it.

Corporate gifting has become a formality. A pen that gets lost in a drawer. A diary that never gets opened. A mug identical to the one three other vendors already sent. None of it carries a brand's name for more than a week, and none of it says anything about the company that gave it.

Apparel works differently. A hoodie or a tee gets worn on weekends, at the gym, on flights, at family gatherings, in front of exactly the audience a founder or HR manager wants to reach beyond a single office. It travels with the person who received it, long after the event that prompted the gift is forgotten.

But most apparel offered for bulk or corporate orders is thin, poorly cut and forgettable in ways that undercut the goodwill of the gesture. The real problem is not a lack of options. It is the absence of a partner who treats apparel as a serious brand decision, not a line item to be ticked off before a deadline.

1 week

is how long the average corporate gift stays in sight before it is binned or forgotten. Apparel gets worn for years.

02 — THE HAWABAZI ANSWER

Hawa does not ask permission. Neither should what your team wears.

Hawabazi was built on a simple premise: premium apparel should be accessible to companies of every size, not only the ones with import budgets. Every piece is designed around three commitments, fabric that survives repeated wear, a design language that carries genuine cultural identity, and a fit built for real Indian bodies rather than borrowed size charts.

When a company chooses Hawabazi for gifting or bulk orders, it is choosing apparel people actually want to keep wearing, long after the event, the onboarding day or the festive season has passed. That is the difference between a gift appreciated once and a gift that keeps representing your brand for years.

05 — WHY HAWABAZI

Premium quality without the import price tag

Most companies choosing apparel for gifting or bulk orders are stuck picking between two weak options: unbranded fast fashion that falls apart in a season, or international brands priced far beyond what a volume order can justify. Hawabazi sits deliberately in between.

DIMENSION	UNBRANDED	INTERNATIONAL	HAWABAZI
Quality & Fabric	Inconsistent, cheap	High, expensive	Premium, accessible
Indian Identity	None	None or generic	Core to the brand
Family Range	Fragmented	Rarely complete	Men, Women, Kids in one
Corporate Offer	Not available	Rarely offered	Dedicated programme
Price Point	Rs 200–600	Rs 2,000–8,000+	Rs 600–2,500

Rs 600–2,500

The Hawabazi sweet spot: import-grade quality, an Indian identity, and a price that works at 500 pieces just as well as at 50.

06 — CUSTOMISATION

Make it unmistakably yours

Every order, whether it is 50 pieces for a leadership offsite or 2,000 for a company-wide rollout, runs through the same six-part customisation pipeline. Mix and match freely, most orders combine at least three of the six, and none of them carry a separate design fee.

01 LOGO EMBROIDERY

Precision-stitched branding for a premium, permanent finish that holds its shape wash after wash. The default choice for leadership gifting.

02 SCREEN PRINTING

Bold, vibrant branding suited to large-run orders where cost efficiency matters most, without compromising on colour accuracy.

03 DTF PRINTING

printing colorful designs onto a special PET film, coating it with an adhesive powder, and heat-pressing it directly onto fabrics

04 PACKAGING

Minimal kraft and matte-laminated finishing that elevates the moment of unboxing, on brand and ready for gifting straight out of the box.

05 OPTIONAL ADD-ONS

Personalised name tags, custom woven care labels and tailored size charts for team and uniform programmes at any scale.

06 SAMPLING

A physical sample, approved by you, before any full production run begins. No surprises between what you signed off and what ships.

Not sure which combination fits your order?

Tell us the occasion and quantity, we will recommend the right mix during your consult call.

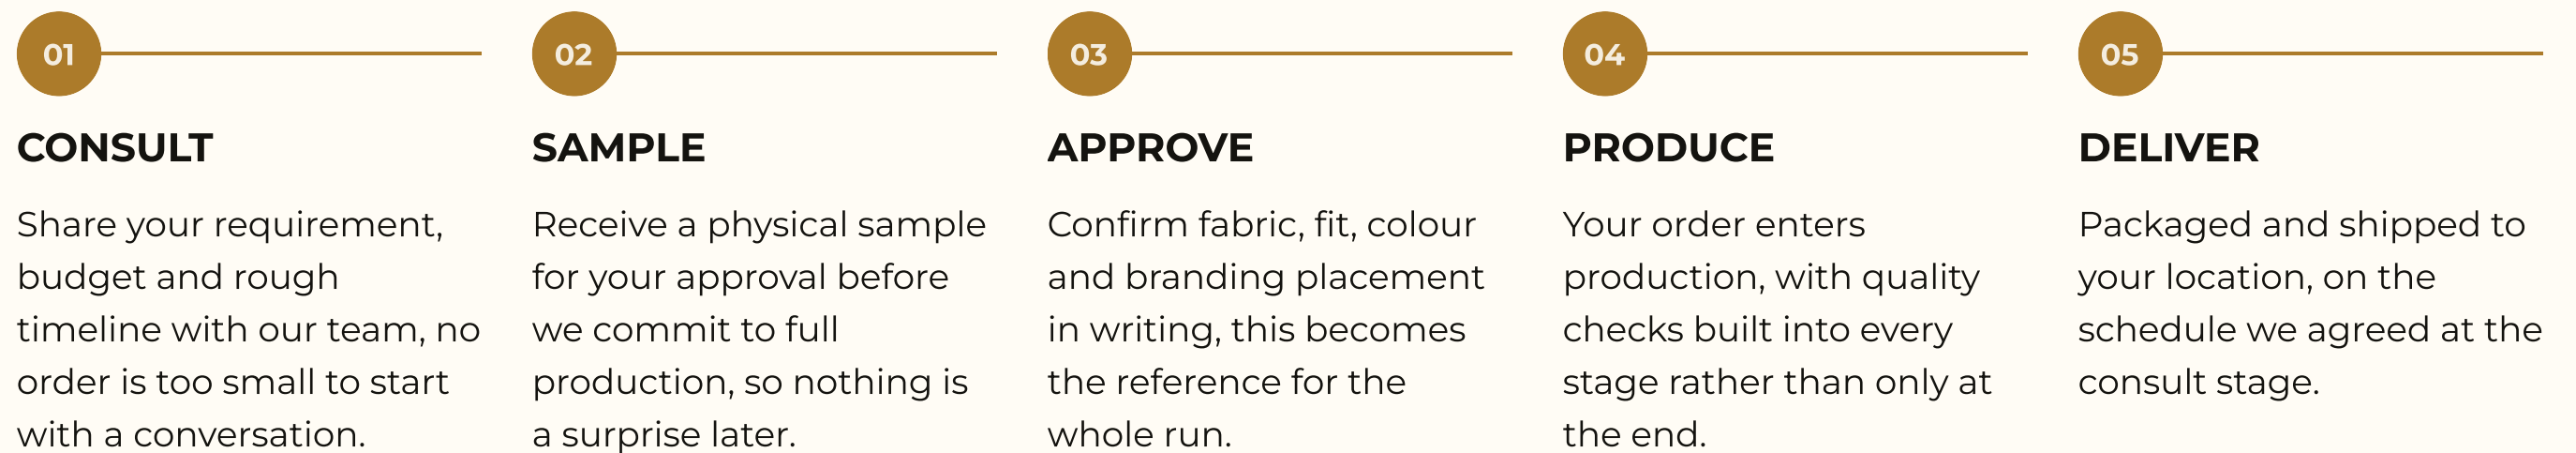

07

— HOW IT WORKS

Five steps from brief to delivery

From the first conversation to the box arriving at your office, the process is designed to be predictable. No surprises on fit, fabric or timeline once you have signed off on the sample, and every stage has a named owner on our side.

2-4 weeks

Indicative turnaround, depending on order size and customisation complexity. Enterprise orders get a priority production slot ahead of the queue.

Quality Checks

At every production stage, not just before shipping.

Named Contact

One person accountable for your order start to finish.

Fixed Timeline

Agreed at consult stage and held through delivery.

08 — INVESTMENT Pricing built around your order size

Every tier below includes logo branding, quality checks at every production stage, and a dedicated point of contact. Larger orders unlock deeper customisation and faster turnaround, but the fabric and construction standard never changes.

MOST POPULAR
Starter 50–150 PIECES • Single product category • Logo embroidery or print • Standard packaging • 3 to 4 week turnaround	Growth 150–500 PIECES • Multi-category, mixed sizing • Full customisation suite • Premium kraft packaging • 2 to 3 week turnaround	Enterprise 500+ PIECES • Full catalogue access • Dedicated account manager • Custom packaging design • Priority production slot

Pricing shown is indicative and varies by product, customisation and fabric choice. Final quotations are issued after your specification is confirmed. [Insert per-unit price ranges once finalised.]

09 — TRUST

Built to earn a place in serious wardrobes

Every order runs through the same quality checks whether it is 50 pieces or 5,000. That consistency is what turns a first order into a repeat one, and a repeat client into a reference we can point the next company to.

“Delivered 300 pieces on time, every size fit right, and the packaging alone made our onboarding kit feel premium.

Arjun Bhatia, Founder

“Finally an apparel vendor that understands schools need durability and consistent sizing, not just a nice sample.

Dr. Anil Nair, Administrator

“We've done corporate gifting for five years and this is the first time employees actually asked where the hoodie was from.

Priya Deshmukh, NGO Coordinator

“"Our client gifting used to be an afterthought. Now it's something our account managers are proud to hand over."

Simran Kaur, Event Coordinator
